THE CHAPPEL-SIMPSON WEDDING NEXT WEEK.

Mr. Walsh Gathers Another Distinguished Company at Dinner—Personal Notes.

Miss Carol Simpson, daughter of Col. William A. Simpson, U. S. A., and Mr. Valentine Chappel of New London, will be married June 20 at the family residence, on Q street. Rev. Father Buckley will officiate and the bride will be escorted by her brother, Lieut. William Fitzhugh Lee Simpson. Miss Elizabeth Goodwin will be maid of honor, and Mr. George Chappel best man. Col. Simpson is in the Philippines.

Mr. Thomas F. Walsh entertained a notable company at dinner last night in honor of Mr. P. F. Collier of New York. In the company were the Secretary of the Interior, the admiral of the navy, the assistant secretary of state, Mr. Loomis, the assistant secretary of war, Gen. Oliver, the Japanese minister, the Belgian minister, Rear Admiral Walker, Gen. Crozier, Rear Admiral R. C. Storring, Mr. McCrea, Mr. Glover, Mr. Charles J. Bell, Col. Henry May, Dr. Charles Shepard, Mr. Seckendorf, Mr. Lowry and Mr. Grosvenor. Mr. and Mrs. Walsh will be in Chicago during the convention next week.

The bridesmaids' costumes at the marriage of Miss Whelan and Mr. Robert Goetz yesterday at Wayne, Pa., were ideal constructions. Their dresses were of rose pink tulle, with a fine white lace collar, and cut round in the back. Jeweled pinneaux buttons held the pink centers adorned the front of the bodices, while a collar of antique lace, with narrow ends, fell on either side. The skirts were tucked likewise in broad tucks, with a ruche of the silk shirred down the front panels and around the bottom.

They wore large poke bonnets of pale pink chip, with shaded pink ostrich plumes falling over the front, and wide shaded pink ribbons, fastened in the back and brought down the sides, with a bow at the end, with flowing streamers. Instead of flowers, each bridesmaid carried a parasol of pale pink, each parasol being decorated with one of the large pink roses which were the head of the procession of eight girls.

Miss Mabel Murray has returned to Annapolis, Md., from St. Louis, where she was to be bridesmaid at the Bates-Walsh wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Schmidt and daughter left this morning for Lake George, N. Y., for a week's vacation. Mr. Schmidt is a member of the board of directors of the city of Washington, and will remain there for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Baumgarten and their son Cecil are at the Hot Springs, Va., and will remain there for three weeks.

Miss Mary Margaret Contee and Mr. William Herbert Plummer of Washington were married yesterday at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Charles A. Sullivan, Baltimore. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Gardner Murray, rector of St. Michael and All Angels' Protestant Episcopal Church, and the Rev. Dr. J. P. Kelly.

The parlor was decorated with flowers. The bride wore champagne voile over tulle and carried a large bouquet. She was attended by Miss Helen E. Contee, a sister who was attired in gray silk mull and a black picture hat. Mr. Charles E. Brock of Washington was the best man, and the page in waiting was Master Gordon Fairfax Contee of Washington, a nephew of the bride.

The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Henry Contee of Prince George's county, Maryland. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Plummer left for a trip to Atlantic City and the north. The bride is a daughter of the late Charles Snowden Contee, and is connected with the prominent family of southern Maryland and Virginia.

Miss W. P. Kyle left the city yesterday for Winthrop Beach, Mass., where she expects to remain during the summer months.

At the marriage of Miss Cordelia Patterson Snyder, daughter of Mrs. James A. Snyder, to Capt. Frank Leslie Wells, U. S. A., tonight at St. Paul's P. E. Church, Lieut. Samuel T. Ansell, 11th Infantry, will be best man, and the following will serve as ushers: Lieut. Edward T. Weisel, Lieut. Wade H. Carpenter, Lieut. Henry S. Robinson, Lieut. Wm. C. Tremaine, Lieut. James P. Robinson and Capt. P. E. Reynolds.

Senator and Mrs. R. A. Alger will go to Chicago June 19 to visit their daughter, Mrs. Charles B. Pike, and will sail for Europe in July to spend the summer.

Representative Bourke Cochran entertained over Sunday at his place at Roslyn, L. I., a large house party.

Miss Alice Wright, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Wright of this city, was a bridesmaid at the marriage last week at Riverside, near Cincinnati, of her youthful aunt, Miss Marie Louise Wright and Mr. H. E. Goodhue of Cambridge, Mass. The ceremony was at "Stony Ford," the delightful old Wright mansion at Riverside, one of the few old landmarks of the days when the river road was the fashionable drive. The house commands a view of the Kentucky hills and the best of the river, and is surrounded by fine old trees and shrubbery that have bloomed for three generations.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Lisner leave town tonight for New York, and will sail tomorrow for an extended tour of Europe. They expect to return late in October.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Fiske have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Bertha Lee, to Mr. Edwin Dorsey Follin, Wednesday evening, June 23, at 8 o'clock, at the Presbyterian Church, at home after September 1 at 1732 U street.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Beem are at home to other friends at 806 F street southwest.

Dr. and Mrs. Clifton P. Clark celebrated the third anniversary of their marriage by a sail down the river on the steam yacht Pelican. A party of congenial friends accompanied them, and the evening was one of great enjoyment. Refreshments were served on deck at sunset. Among those who enjoyed the hospitality of the Pelican were: Mr. and Mrs. George Hesselman, Mr. and Mrs. Cheno-weth, Miss Jennie N. Kent, Miss Fay Kent and Dr. and Mrs. Clark.

Mr. George G. Seibold, recently elected secretary of Columbia Typographical Union of this city, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. L. P. Seibold of Princeton street, are at Atlantic City.

June 1, at 8 o'clock p.m., a pretty wedding took place at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, in Alexandria, Va., where the contracting parties being Miss Amy M. Curtis of Washington and Mr. Thos. Upton Fairfax of Alexandria, the Rev. Claude Smith officiating. The bride was escorted by Judge Nicol, who gave her away. She was beautifully attired in white satin dress and veil and carried a large bouquet of flowers. Miss Helen Davis was maid of honor and carried a France roses, and Dr. James H. Fiske was best man. The ushers were Mr. Chas. Nagel, Mr. Renner, Mr. Milton Fairfax, Mr. Ben. Fairfax and Mr. James Kachowch. The wedding was followed by a reception, limited to relatives and a few personal friends. Mr. and Mrs. Fairfax left for St. Louis later after June 15 will be at home at Carroll avenue between Willow and Laurel avenues.

SALE OF LAND APPROVED.

Appeal Noted, However, Which May Delay the Transfer.

Justice Anderson, in Equity Court No. 1, today approved the action of Andrew A. Lipscomb and John P. Edwards, trustees, in agreeing to sell the "Thornton tract" to the Seventh Day Adventists for 4 cents a square foot. The tract consists of nearly five acres, about one-half of it lying within the District of Columbia and the remainder in the corporate limits of Takoma Park, Md. Just across the District line, and is on Carroll avenue between Willow and Laurel avenues.

Heirs of the Thornton estate, who are said to represent a five-sixths interest in the tract mentioned, entered objection to the sale of the land for 4 cents a foot, claiming that the court therefore approved the action of the trustees in agreeing to sell to the Seventh Day Adventists at that figure.

It is said that the ruling of the court will be practically nullified by an appeal therefrom, which was noted in open court by counsel for the heirs. The matter may be kept in litigation for several years, it is pointed out, and the Seventh Day Adventists will probably not wait that long for the tract, but it is said to be likely, will buy other property.

Attorney J. W. and J. M. appeared for the trustees and Indians Lambert & Baker for the heirs.

Carroll Institute Excursion.

Tomorrow the members and friends of Carroll Institute will go to River View for their thirty-first annual outing. The program for dancing has been arranged by the committee which has managed the many delightful hops given by the institute during the past season. Many families will go down on the early boat for a day's gambol on the lawn. In addition to the regular schedule a boat will leave River View at 8 p.m. for the accommodation of those who wish to return home early. The following amusing events will take place after the arrival of the 2:15 p.m. boat, under the direction of Prof. Maurice A. Joyce: One hundred-yard dash, seventy-five-yard sack race, one mile cross-country run, wrestling "catch-as-catch-can," 125-pound class, 145-pound class. During the intermission a basketball game will be played by two closely matched teams, seven minutes to each side. The games will leave the wharf at 10 a.m., 2:15 p.m. and 6:45 p.m. Returning, 12:15, 5 and 10:30 p.m.

Surprise Party at Lutheran Home.

The young people of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, to the number of thirty-eight, paid a visit to the National Lutheran Home for the Aged last evening. The affair was in the nature of a surprise party to the family of the institution, resulting in a very pleasant evening. Refreshments had been sent out in advance and when all were seated in the large dining room there was no difference apparent in the age of any of the guests as they all young once more.

The centennial commencement of the University of Georgia is in progress at Athens, Ga. One hundred years ago the first commencement exercises of the university were held on the campus under a bush arbor that stood in front of the only building of any size on the campus at that time.
